Mutoh America Inc. Hires Tom Testa as Southeastern Regional Sales Manager

Phoenix, AZ (June, 2011) – Mutoh, an industry leader in wide-format printers, proudly hires Tom Testa as Mutoh America Inc.’s Southeastern regional sales manager. Testa’s background in the wide-format industry makes him a perfect fit for his new position with Mutoh.

Working under the guidance of the director of sales: Gary Rudnick, Testa will be responsible for creating and managing sales in the Southeastern United States. He will maintain relationships with Mutoh dealers and customers, while increasing brand awareness in the Southeast.

Testa has been appointed as the first Southeastern regional sales manager in the new Atlanta-area based office. He is looking forward to using the office to host events and create networking opportunities.

Prior to his position with Mutoh, Testa’s career has taken him throughout the wide-format world. He has held previous marketing and sales positions with companies such as Xerox and Kodak. Testa has even owned and operated his own sign shop. His experience in the manufacturing world and as an end user inspires him to drive sales.

“It is exciting to work on the manufacturing side of the wide-format world once again,” shares Testa. “I know what it takes to run a successful sign business and am looking forward to relating with our customers on the print shop level.”
