Mutoh America Inc. Hires David Conrad as Marketing Manager

Phoenix, AZ. (June, 2011) – Mutoh, an industry leader in wide-format printers, proudly appoints David Conrad as Mutoh America Inc.'s marketing manager. Conrad's experience with marketing and sales in the wide-format industry makes him perfect fit for his new position with Mutoh.

Working under the guidance of the director of marketing: Hiroaki Futsukaichi, Conrad's main responsibilities will be: implementing and managing marketing and reseller programs, sales and reseller support, and creating advertisements.

Prior to his position with Mutoh, Conrad was the senior product manager for SEAL-Neschen. His responsibilities included product development, corporate marketing and branding and training. He provided support for all equipment, film laminates, adhesive and liquid products. Conrad is looking forward to working in a new section of the wide-format industry and plans to use his experience to grow the Mutoh brand name.

"I'm excited to work for the premier printer manufacturer in the sign market," shares Conrad. "With my marketing and business development experience in the wide-format industry, I plan to help Mutoh maintain and build upon their already strong brand name through creative marketing campaigns and programs. I hope to facilitate development and establish new partnerships that promote the Mutoh brand and help keep Mutoh at the top of the sign and graphics marketplace."

Conrad has worked in the wide-format world for over 18 years. His career has lead him through numerous job functions including marketing, product management, business development and sales.
